

IBI-helpMe-Client

A user can start a Support Case anytime, anywhere, without specialist knowledge just by clicking on the “lifesaver” ring.

All of the system data necessary for support is automatically logged and a screenshot is taken. The Support Case is then always sent to the right address automatically. Time-consuming queries become a thing of the past.