IBI-helpMe

What is new?

Description texts

Description texts offer the possibility to add further information to the respective input fields in order to simplify the selection for the end users.

Context-sensitive information

A context-sensitive information for selection field entries can be specified, e.g. in order to be able to indicate a solution suggestion or a more detailed description.